A defendant may serve an answer upon the undersigned plaintiff's attorney, Anita Johnson, Assistant U.S. Attorney, U.S. Attorney's Office, 1 Courthouse Way, Suite 9200, Boston, MA 02210, within 20 days after service of this notice (or within the time prescribed by the Waiver of Service of Summons or summons, if applicable). Your answer should identify the property in which you claim to have an interest, state the nature and extent of the interest claimed, and state all your objections and defenses to the taking of the property. If you have no objection or defense to the taking, you may serve on the plaintiff's attorney a Notice of Appearance designating the property in which you claim an interest. You shall, thereafter, be furnished notice of all proceedings affecting said property.

At the trial of the issue of just compensation, whether or not you have answered or served a notice of appearance, you may present evidence as to the amount of the compensation to be paid for the property in which you have an interest, and you may share in the distribution of the award of compensation according to the interest in the property which you possess.
